A new smoke within the 2013 Mississippi burn was reported at 1430 by AFS H-6LE. Coordinates were fine tuned to N 64 04.373 X W 146 02.859 by Delta Helitack. The fire was initial attacked at .4 acs with 1 foot flame lengths and a 25% active perimeter. The origin was determined to be an ash pit, which propagated fire into an adjoining 50 acre unburnt, hardwood island. Moderate accumulations of heavy dead and down encircled the island and understory litter carried the fire. Spotting was observed to 20 feet. Together H-1KA bucket drops and well-applied handtools contained the fire by 2130. Helitack will re-deploy 5/11.
