Narrative: Frye's T-1 IMT transferred command to Higgins T-3 IMT. Interior islands were burned out. Two hand crews mopped-up the east side of Eagle Summit north of the Steese Highway. Engine Task force patrolled the Steese Highway from Eagle Summit to Mile Post 140; no significant threats. Falling snags were a considerable hazard along Porcupine Creek and prevented mop-up by ground crews around structures east of Quartz Creek. Helicopter 9EH conducted bucket work in the PM along Quartz Creek to moderate fire that flared with steady east evening winds. Public interest remains high; numerous phone calls received reported fire activity and requested information. Resource Advisor scouted dozer line in preparation for rehab. The TFR over the complex was cancelled. Personnel assigned to Central Complex (Bolgen Creek is the major component): 75.

Narrative: Strong easterly winds pushed the southern portion of the fire across Sixmile Creek. Seven smokejumpers were dispatched from Ft. Yukon. Smokejumpers began implementation of a contingency plan developed in the early stages of the fire to defend Evansville in the event the fire begins to move north. One medium helicopter is assigned to the fire. Another load of smokejumpers has been ordered for delivery in the morning, as soon as smoke conditions allow.
