Today the weather was 100% cloudy with cooler temps, light rain and an absence of wetting rain. Tomorrow the weather is expected to be similiar to today. Wetting rain is forecast for Sunday and Monday.

Eight smokejumpers were demobilized today along with one Fire Specialist from the Hughes Staging Area. The remaining eight smokejumpers continued loosely gridding the fire for heat and found most of the heat fairly well into the interior. A tight grid was not possible due to the heavy load of dead and down trees. Tomorrow they will continue the loose gridding to locate heat.
